

The Mid-Shore Community Foundation
&
The Foundation Center

are sponsoring the following training seminars, taught by Maryland Nonprofits,
at Chesapeake College, Learning Resource Center, Room L-108

Introduction to Grant Research and Proposal Writing

April 16th 2010

12:00-3:00 (Includes Lunch)

Knowing where to ask and how to ask well are critical to securing any grant

- Objectives and approaches to grant/funder research
- Matching funder mission to your organization's mission
- Tips and tricks for writing strong proposals
- Pitfalls to avoid

Bridging Governance and Operations: Negotiating the relationships between the board and the chief executive

May 14th, 2010

12:00-3:00 (Includes Lunch)

The point at which the board's governance responsibilities and the chief executives operations responsibilities meet can either strengthen or strain the effectiveness of an organization. This 3 hour session focuses on the key elements to successful relationships between the board and the chief executive including:

- Differentiating between governance and operations
- Setting clear expectations
- Communication between the board and the executive
- Executive oversight and evaluation

The workshops are designed for teams of Board Chairs and Executive Directors for each participating non profit.

There is no charge for Partners of the Mid-Shore Community Foundation.
There is a $15.00 charge for all others.

Please reserve your seat early because space is limited.

Please contact Heather at 410-820-8175 x 102 or heather@mscf.org with questions or reservations.